

Drew Markham

General Counsel & Secretary, Senior Vice President People Operations MicroVision

Drew Markham is a seasoned legal and business executive with more than three decades of experience spanning public company governance, technology, corporate strategy, and people operations. She currently serves as General Counsel & Secretary and Senior Vice President of People Operations at MicroVision, where she oversees the company's global legal strategy, corporate governance, compliance, SEC reporting, and board engagement, while also leading human resources and organizational development.

Since joining MicroVision in 2021, she has played a central role in guiding the company through strategic transformation, capital markets activity, M&A initiatives, and organizational scaling. Her unique dual leadership across legal and people functions positions her at the intersection of governance, culture, and operational execution – ensuring the company's growth strategy is supported by strong controls, clear accountability, and aligned talent practices.

Prior to MicroVision, she advised publicly traded and growth-stage technology companies on strategic M&A, governance, compliance, risk management, and operational leadership.

Earlier, she served as Vice President, Deputy General Counsel & Assistant Secretary at RealNetworks, where she led corporate, securities, and transactional matters for the publicly traded technology company. Her work included board governance, M&A, commercial transactions, SEC reporting, and intellectual property strategy.

Drew spent more than 13 years at Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati advising high-growth technology companies and venture-backed startups on corporate formation, financings, governance, and strategic transactions. Earlier in her career, she held finance and accounting roles at Levi Strauss & Co., Monterey Pasta Company, and Ernst & Young, building a strong foundation in financial reporting, auditing, and operational controls.

Known for her pragmatic leadership style and cross-functional fluency, she brings together legal rigor, financial discipline, and organizational insight. Her career reflects a consistent focus on helping companies scale responsibly – aligning governance, talent, and strategy to drive sustainable long-term performance.

Drew received a Bachelor of Science in Accounting from the University of Florida and her J.D. from the University of Washington School of Law.
